VOL. 14, NUMBER 162 MONESSEN, PA, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1915 SIX CENTS THE WEEK

If Monessen is good enough to work in and make a living in for the family, it is good enough to live in. If not, help make it better.

Quarter Million Dollars For Local Xmas Pays This Week

Within the next four days approximately $250,000 will be paid out by the local mills to their employes. This is one of the largest two week pays ever recc ded at the Christmas season and local business men are looking forward to the greatest holiday rush in many years the two days preceding Christmas

The Pittsburgh Steel and Pittsburgh Steel Products company head the list and Thursday will pay out over $160,000 to their employes The Tin mill, although not working full turns for some time past on account of the shortage of acid will pay out $40,000 Friday morning. The Page mill will also pay Friday and approximately $32,000 will be given the empoyes at this pant. The Carnegie Steel mill, one of the smallest but most active industries in the city will pay $10,000 to their employes Thursday.

The Foundry will pay $1,500, the Westmoreland Lumber company, $1,000, the Monessen Steam Laundry, $1,000, the Independent Brewing company, $800 00 and the Box factory about $500 In addition to the above, clerks in stores, office men and other employes about town will receive approximately $2,000, and the town will also derive benefits from the big pays at the mines above Belle Vernon, Pricedale and Webster which will aggregate an additional $50,000

Early Christmas shopping, unfortunately is not the vogue in this city owing to the late pays at the mills, but the merchants have not complained and have secured the services of additional help to take care of the final rush that is certain to come after the huge pays Very few if any merchants in this vicinity have fallen below last year in the receipts and after the Christmas trade has been taken care of, it is certain that the receipts for this month will bring their averages away above that of any previous year.

Won Again

The Colonial duck pin team of this city, the only unbeaten team in the Monongahela valley, added another to their long string last evening when they defeated the strong Fayette City team by a score of 1851 to 1708, a lead of 143 pins The score made by the locals is considered remarkably good and despite the fact that larger scores have been made in the Pittsburgh district, it was only accomplished with the use of silver pins Vic Lauze was big man last night and knocked down 397 pins, and the other members of the team rolled as follows Cavilla, 388, Capt Jarouse 375, Allen 346 and Monack 345. This evening the new City league will be opened at the Colonial alleys when the locals meet the Keystone team. Standing room was at a premium at the alleys last evening and all those wishing to witness the contest tonight should get there as early as possible

New Daily

Donora, that thriving industrial town which is now experiencing the greatest boom in its history, has a new and much needed enterprise It was launched yesterday in the form of a daily newspaper. The American which has heretofore been issued as a weekly will in the future be called the Daily American and will be issued every afternoon with W H Watson as editor. "Bill" is now in his long looked for field of clover He has craved the daily field ever since he left the Independent some five years ago and now that he is again drinking at the fountain we can expect to use our scissors more freely than in the past The paper appears in six columns, four pages with an editorial inside which indicates that there won't be any compromise with things wrong Donora ought to be a good field for a live daily and believing it will be, we wish the new enterprise unbounded success and prosperity

Visited Here

Rev J E Morris, formerly pastor of the local A M. E church but who was transferred to Uniontown, was here today to spend a few hours and greet his many friends Rev. Morris is getting along well in his new field and as evidence of this while here he displayed a bill with the announcement of his famous Old Virginia Game Dinner which is being held this year in Uniontown. While here Rev. Morris was instrumental in conducting one each year with great success and people generally were so well pleased with it that they looked forward to its coming with great anticipation It will be held at his new charge this year, January 13th, and no doubt a number of his former members will attend at Uniontown. Rev Morris stopped off here while on his way through from Pittsburgh where he purchased the wild meats.

Bowden May Have Been Locked In

An investigation of the circumstances that led to the death of William Donnelly, otherwise known as Jake Bowden, who lost his life in the burning of the H. H Young building at Monongahela Friday night, is now under way. It is believed that Donnelly had been locked in a room on the top story of the building and was unable to escape while the structure was in flames Several persons report that the unfortunate man was seen at the windows of the fifth floor, but the firemen were unable to reach the place The dead man was 45 years old

It is rumored at Monongahela that Donnelly received his pay Friday and became slightly intoxicated. In order to keep him from getting any more alcohol and spending his money unwisely, it is said he was placed in the upper room of the big building and the door locked on the outside. When the fire broke out he was unable to help himself

An Error

An error in the advertisement of the Olympic theatre in this paper last night gave out the wrong information with regard to the production of "Les Miserables" now being produced at that house. This is one of the most lavish and expensive productions on the film and the advertisement should have read nine reels produced at a cost of $100,000 00, but a typographical error made it read $10 000 00 and three reels

No person in Monessen should miss this far famed piece of literature produced on the screen with costly settings and portrayed by immortal actors Few people have not heard of or read "Les Miserables" and whether you have read it or not will make no difference in so far as the entertaining qualities of the picture goes If you see the play before reading the book, you will not be satisfied until you have acquainted yourself with this wonderful work of history At the Olympic today 1t

Luna Theatre Will Have Big Opening

Tomorrow afternoon the Luna theatre will be thrown open to the public after having been closed down for several months during which time this popular little theatre underwent many changes and improvements All work was completed under supervision of the State Fire Marshall and will comply in all particulars with the state and city fire regulations New up to date machines have been installed, a new screen secured and both the interior and exterior remodeled and presents a pleasing appearance.

Only late releases from the association program will be shown and for the opening program the first two chapters of the famous serial "The Goddess" will be shown and succeeding chapters will be shown each Monday thereafter In addition to this great picture tomorrow's program includes a three reel Selig feature 'Blood Seedling," an Essanay entitled "Dead Women Forget," and a Lubin comedy entitled "Half a Million"

The first big special will be shown Thursday when the management will present Lionel Barrymore in a five reel feature entitled "The Span of Life" On Thursday a two reel Essanay, "Miss Freckles" and a Selig entitled "The Stage Coach Guard" will complete the program. Good music will be furnished and the public is invited to visit the theatre on opening day.

Thank Firemen

The Volunteer Fire department of Monongahela and the people of that city take this means of thanking the Monessen, Charleroi and Donora fire-departments for the assistance given them at the disastrous fire of Friday evening They fully realize that without the assistance of the fire departments from the neighboring towns, they would have been unable to cope with the flames and appreciate in no little way the promptness of the visiting firemen in responding to the call for help. The Monessen department was practically the first of the outside fire departments on the scene with their modern truck and although they were unable to use their hose, they rendered efficient service to the Monongahela firemen and the Monongahela people have nothing but words of praise for the work of Chief Riley and his boys

Friday Is The Last Day Of The Great Vote Offer

The Daily Independent's great extra vote offer is rushing through the last days and when the call "Time" is shouted, all will be over Work without rest is the portion candidates have picked out for themselves for the extreme uncertainty of just how many votes each candidate has made it urgent that everything possible be done to make sure of victory Claims and counter claims have been made—yet the ultimate result is one nobody can forecast

Are Becoming Excited

Excitement has become feverish Candidates are working like beavers to make their last efforts count Letters have been received advising that entire populations are strong behind their candidates, grimly determined that their favorite daughters and sons will emerge from the campaign flushed with victory Everywhere they scurry about—quickly adopting every advantage that might lead to success

About Dark Horses

There were rumors of dark horses yesterday that are quite worthy of credence. The conditions are such that a candidate with enough votes for a start would indeed be wanting in spirit if he or she did not go after the top prize in a case where someone was "laying down" with the idea that it was all over and he or she had the prize within their grasp, and that there was nothing to do but wait for the distribution of prizes. Some candidates far down on the list have seen their opportunity and have taken advantage of it.

"There's many a slip twixt the cup and the lip." And likewise many a slip possible before the close. A contestant who lays down now after making a good showing thus far, is going to be passed by some other candidate who has been busy during the closing days. Many things can happen between now and 10 o'clock Wednesday night, Jan 8th; the only safe way to do is to be prepared by having enough votes.

As still another perseverance reward to contestants in the Independent automobile contest, the contest manager announces that there will be

City League

At a meeting Sunday afternoon the City bowling league was formed with three teams, Keystone, Colonials and Stars A series of games will be played during the season and cash awards will be made for high individual scores during the season in one game and in the matches The captains of the three teams have placed forfeits to finish the season and should they fail the money will be divided among the players remaining in the league during the season

As to Subscribers

A court decision has lately been rendered in Massachusetts on what constitutes a subscriber. The judge firmly believed that the man who received the paper, although he never subscribed for it, is entitled to pay. James Thompson moved, and William Robinson took immediate possession and received and accepted a weekly newspaper that was delivered to him through the mails every week. The good natured editor sent accounts frequently, but no attention was paid to them by Mr. Robinson.

Finally there was a day of reckoning. Robinson had received the paper for some time, he informed the collector, but he said that he never subscribed and declined to pay for it. The judge personally questioned the defendant, who said that he had read and made use of it and was receiving the accounts, which were frequently inclosed in the paper.

Judgment was rendered in favor of the newspaper. The judge was severe in his criticism of people who are receiving papers and do not think it worth while to pay for what they receive and make use of. It is an act of dishonesty, he said. One should acquaint the publisher and pay for what ever numbers he receives.

The War Spirit

Ernest Thompson Seton has sent in his resignation as chief of the Boy Scouts of America because, he says, the Scout's original message of conservation and brotherhood has given place to militarism. Is it quite fair, we wonder, to expect small boys to escape the prevailing influence of the time? Militarism has proved itself one of the primitive instincts which man has not overcome in centuries of civilizaton. The game of the warpath has always interested boys more than building a fire without a match.

And this old war game is universal. Over in India the 11-year-old Nawab of Bhawalpur is reported as leading an uprising against the English. It can hardly be supposed that this juvenile warrior comprehends the political intrigue back of the revolt. What he catches is the military spirit. It has been the fashion for half a century to look upon war as the great illusion. Today it is the one big fact which dominates the world. Evidently we do not get rid of our instincts by ignoring them. But we can train and control them. And that discipline is just what makes the Boy Scout movement so valuable.

The prosperity of a town is not reckoned by the wealth of its inhabitants, but by the uniformity with which they pull together when any important undertaking is to be accomplished. A man with a few hundred dollars at his command and a love for his town in his heart can do more for the upbuilding of it than the millionaire who locks up his capital and snaps his fingers at home progress.

THURSDAY SPECIAL

Wonderful day, almost as good as Tuesday. Albert Chevalier, England's most distinguished character actor and Florence Turner, second only to that of Mr. Chevalier's reputation in "My Old Dutch," based on his most famous Coster characterization. In "My Old Dutch," the genius of Albert Chevalier, England's most talented character appears in its supreme acheivement. Literally millions of Americans have laughed and cried at Chevalier's inimitable Coster characterizations. Everyone has heard, sung and loved his famous song, "My Old Dutch," on which this great film presentation is based. Florence Turner's ruputation is second only to that of Mr. Chevalier, and the sets, direction and cast of this sterling play is far beyond the usual standard of features. It is clean, it is sweet, it is wholesome, It touches the tenderest spot in the human heart. It goes right down to the bottom and brings up nothing but good. Albert Chevalier being one of the greatest actors the stage has ever produced and Miss Turner is one of the most versatile and charming actresses the screen has developed. They bring out the beauty of the famous old poem, "My Old Dutch" on which the play is founded. They act. They don't dissemble, pose, look pretty and strike attitudes. The story is of a mother and father's self-sacrifice for an only son, who proved worthy of their love and devotion.

"My Old Dutch"

The next great picture in the same day is "The Sacrifice of Jonathan Grey," a 3 reel drama featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, almost as good as Albert Chevalier, and Edna Payne, excellent actress, and "The Frolics of Marionettes," comedy.

FRIDAY SPECIAL

"Her Great Match" featuring one of the most beautiful dramatic actresses on the stage, Gail Kane. A five act photoplay brimming over with touching sentiment and gripping situations. One of Metro Picture Co. productions, guaranteed as one of the best Metro productions.

Second, "Keeping in Dark," one of Nestor's comedies, and "The Little Lady Across the Way," 2 reel comedy drama with Matt Moore and Jane Gail.

SATURDAY SPECIAL

"The Lion's Ward" in three reels, one of the usual famous Bison features, one of the Joker comedies, featuring Gail Henry and Max Asher. Charles Chaplin's extra fine comedies. And the most wonderful of all and one of the best features of the week we will have the dearest little wonderful actress Ella Hall with Bob Leonard. Everyone remembers them both in the great serial "The Master Key" and Ella Hall in the great Broadway feature. "Jewell."

And the fact is that the Christmas week is breaking the records of all weeks since Olympic theatre started in business in Monessen. With all these great features with the world's greatest actors and actresses, we consider ourselves and our patrons lucky indeed.

Special music for all these wonderful pictures also. Olympic theatre, Monessen, Pa
